ME: In Chambers Hearing and Order

PRESENT IN CHAMBERS: Criss Candelaria, County Attorney; Brad Carlyon, Deputy County Attorney; Benjamin Brewer Wood Law Office, Attorney for the juvenile.

IT IS ORDERED that the juvenile's biological mother be permitted, as previously directed, to visit the juvenile while he is in detention.

Juvenile Detention management and staff are to use their best judgment in determining the juvenile's housing and surroundings.

It is the Court's understanding that the crime scene was released several days ago and that any preservation attempt would be futile at this point.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED authorizing the initial expenditure of $2,500.00 for investigation on behalf of the defense.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a second psychological evaluation be arranged by the Juvenile Probation Department.

November 10, 2008
Case No(s). JV2008065

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED the content of the prosecution, and defense files are not public record and are additionally prohibited from disclosure, other than as required for the orderly processing of this case. The record of court proceedings is a public record, and is available from the proper custodian.
